

Table of Contents

Part A Introduction

Introduction	Basic part travel, leisure & hospitality	17
---------------------	---	-----------

Part B Product and industry knowledge hospitality

Chapter 1 Introduction to the hospitality industry	27
---	-----------

1.1	Introduction	27
1.2	Objectives	28
1.3	Hotels, restaurants and cafes	29
1.4	Sojourn, day and water recreation	30
1.5	Tourist information/city hospitality	32
1.6	The travel industry	33
1.7	Service & hospitality at the destination	33
1.8	The aviation industry	34
1.9	Events & festivals	35
1.10	Museums & theaters	36
1.11	Summary	36
1.12	Glossary	38
1.13	Final assignments	39

Chapter 2 Hospitality begins and ends with you: You are Mr/Mrs hospitality	41
---	-----------

2.1	Introduction	41
2.2	Objectives	42
2.3	You never get a second chance for a first impression!	42
2.4	Enthusiasm: the power of the smile	44
2.5	Expertise: pampering guests	46
2.6	Personality: point of contact	47
2.7	Working in hospitality: never a dull moment	48
2.8	Hospitality and sustainability: starting point for your actions	48
2.9	Summary	49
2.10	Glossary	51
2.11	Final assignments	52

Chapter 3 Jobs and vacancies in the hospitality industry	53
---	-----------

3.1	Introduction	53
3.2	Objectives	54
3.3	Hospitality functions: front office employee	54
3.4	Hospitality functions: (online) travel agent and tour operator	58
3.5	Hospitality functions: information officer, inspiration officer, city marketer	60
3.6	Hospitality functions: activity organizer and event worker	62
3.7	Hospitality functions: cabin attendant and passenger ground services agent	66
3.8	Hospitality functions: abroad	68
3.9	Summary	70
3.10	Glossary	71
3.11	Final assignments	72

Chapter 4 The economic importance of the hospitality industry	75
4.1 Introduction	75
4.2 Objectives	75
4.3 The hospitality economy	76
4.4 International travel	77
4.5 Experience economy	79
4.6 Measuring the experience: Return on experience	80
4.7 Future vision hospitality economy	83
4.8 Summary	85
4.9 Glossary	86
4.10 Final assignments	87
 Chapter 5 The hospitality industry: product knowledge, trends and developments	 89
5.1 Introduction	89
5.2 Objectives	89
5.3 The hospitality industry: a brief outline of development so far	90
5.4 Hotels	91
5.5 Holiday parks	94
5.6 Campsites	97
5.7 B&B	100
5.8 Group accommodations	101
5.9 Accommodation types	102
5.10 Care types	107
5.11 Check-in and check-out times	109
5.12 Rates, target groups and conditions	111
5.13 The organizational structure of a hospitality company	115
5.14 Marinas	116
5.15 Amusement Parks	117
5.16 Travel companies	120
5.17 Events and festivals	121
5.18 Quality ratings: stars and reviews	124
5.19 Industry associations in hospitality	126
5.20 Trends and developments in the hospitality industry	128
5.21 Summary	131
5.22 Glossary	132
5.23 Final assignments	133
 Chapter 6 Knowledge of customers and guests in the hospitality industry	 137
6.1 Introduction	137
6.2 Objectives	137
6.3 The guest journey	138
6.4 Leisure guests and business guests	141
6.5 From customer wish (in colors) to lifestyle	145
6.6 From lifestyle to persona	146
6.7 Alternative classifications of target groups	154
6.8 International guests	155
6.9 Summary	163
6.10 Glossary	164
6.11 Final assignments	164

Chapter 7 Online marketing in the hospitality industry	167
7.1 Introduction	167
7.2 Objectives	168
7.3 Expertise in online marketing	168
7.4 Sales channels: omni-channeling	170
7.5 E-commerce	171
7.6 Social selling	175
7.7 Reviews	178
7.8 The customer journey, contact moments and deployment of promotional tools	180
7.9 Trends and developments to acquire customers	181
7.10 Summary	186
7.11 Glossary	187
7.12 Final assignments	189

Part C Hospitality, sales and service

B1-K1-W1: Receive the customer/guest
 B1-K1-W2: Informs and advises customer/guest
 B1-K1-W3: Sells and/or rents products and/or services
 B1-K2-W3: Keeps records

Chapter 8 Welcoming Guests	195
8.1 Introduction	195
8.2 Objectives	196
8.3 The reception moment	196
8.4 Representative presentation	199
8.5 Receiving guests by phone	203
8.6 Written receipt	205
8.7 Receive guests via Zoom, Skype and Teams	207
8.8 Welcoming guests through self-service, chatbots and robots	208
8.9 Work attitude	209
8.10 Guest/Customer satisfaction	210
8.11 Summary	213
8.12 Glossary	214
8.13 Final assignments	215

Chapter 9 Taking reservations by phone and guiding them online	217
9.1 Introduction	217
9.2 Objectives	217
9.3 Online reservations with chat function	218
9.4 Taking telephone reservations	221
9.5 Capture sales	226
9.6 Working with a PMS	227
9.7 Working with personal and company data: security and company procedures	228
9.8 Payment procedures	229
9.9 Reservation confirmation	230
9.10 Changes and cancellations	231
9.11 Summary	232
9.12 Glossary	233
9.13 Final assignments	234

Chapter 10 Checking in guests	237
10.1 Introduction	237
10.2 Objectives	237
10.3 Checking the reservation before the arrival of the guest	238
10.4 Receiving guests	240
10.5 Reviewing reservation with the guest	241
10.6 Up- & crossselling	241
10.7 Prepare pro forma account and handle payments	244
10.8 Rounding up	247
10.9 Group check-in	247
10.10 VIP check-in	248
10.11 Summary	250
10.12 Glossary	251
10.13 Final assignments	252
 Chapter 11 Informing and advising guests	 255
11.1 Introduction	255
11.2 Objectives	256
11.3 From an information discussion to a consultation	256
11.4 Raising awareness of sustainability	259
11.5 Daytrip parks and events in the Netherlands	263
11.6 Summary	266
11.7 Glossary	267
11.8 Final assignments	268

PART D Hospitality, guest care and networking

B1-K1-W4: Identifies and treats complaints

B1-K1-W5: Maintains internal and/or external contacts

B1-K2-W3: Keeps the administration up to date

Chapter 12 Identifying, addressing, and resolving problems and complaints	277
12.1 Introduction	277
12.2 Objectives	278
12.3 A complaint is a challenge	279
12.4 Types of challenges	281
12.5 Aggression levels	283
12.6 Roadmap U.W.S.S. in resolving complaints	284
12.7 Registering complaints	285
12.8 Prevention	287
12.9 Summary	288
12.10 Glossary	289
12.11 Final assignments	289
 Chapter 13 Spider in the web, internal and/or external contacts	 293
13.1 Introduction	293
13.2 Objectives	294
13.3 Communicating internally with colleagues: shift transfer	294
13.4 Communicate internally to other departments: pass on tasks	295
13.5 External communications	296
13.6 Communications in the case of emergencies	297
13.7 Increasing customer/guest satisfaction: act entrepreneurially and commercially	299
13.8 Relationship management: building relationships and networking	300

13.9	Summary	302
13.10	Glossary	303
13.11	Final assignments	304

Part E Hospitality, check-out and payments

B1-K2-W2: Maintains financial records and handles transactions

Chapter 14 Checking out guests	307
14.1 Introduction	307
14.2 Objectives	308
14.3 Sample check-out procedure for individual guests	308
14.4 Check payments	311
14.5 Going over the invoice with the guest	314
14.6 Payment options	316
14.7 Payments security procedures	319
14.8 Actions on discrepancies and irregularities in payments	320
14.9 Summary	321
14.10 Glossary	323
14.11 Final assignments	324

Part F After sales, product development and promotion

B1-K2-W4: Makes proposals for after sales or adjustment of service

B1-K1-W6: Acquires customers/guests and assignments

B1-K2-W1: Compiles information material

Chapter 15 Collect and analyze information to improve services	329
15.1 Introduction	329
15.2 Objectives	329
15.3 What is after sales?	330
15.4 Create plan of action for after sales	332
15.5 Data collection and analysis: night audit reports	332
15.6 Collecting and analyzing data: industry reports	339
15.7 Data collection and analysis: reviews, surveys, and interviews	342
15.8 Data collection and analysis: trends and developments	345
15.9 Collect and analyze data: conduct a SWOT analysis	346
15.10 Collecting and analyzing data: formulate objective smartly	348
15.11 Summary	349
15.12 Glossary	350
15.13 Final assignments	351
Chapter 16 Product development: develop a new package	353
16.1 Introduction	353
16.2 Objectives	353
16.3 For which target group are you developing the package	354
16.4 Composing a package	354
16.5 Determining the price of the package	359
16.6 Summary	369
16.7 Glossary	370
16.8 Final assignments	370

Chapter 17 Promotion of the package	373
17.1 Introduction	373
17.2 Objectives	374
17.3 Designing promotional material	374
17.4 What do you want to communicate?	379
17.5 Through what distribution channels will you communicate?	383
17.6 Summary	385
17.7 Glossary	386
17.8 Final Assignments	387

Part G Practical assignments

Practice assignment B1-K1 'Acts as a point of contact'
B1-K2 'Performs administrative and financial processes'	391
Subassignment 1 Planning and organization	392
Subassignment 2 Aftersales, product development and promotion	393
Subassignment 3 Working at the hospitality desk	395