

Table of contents

BLZ

Module 1	Solution-oriented thinking	7
1.1	Introduction	7
1.2	Objective	8
1.3	Solutions instead of problems	8
1.4	Tips for online contact	11
Module 2	Qualities in the picture	12
2.1	Introduction	12
2.2	Objective	12
2.3	Qualities, talents and skills	13
2.4	Ofman's quadrant	14
2.5	The STARR method	16
Module 3	Occupational Orientation	22
3.1	Introduction	22
3.2	Objective	22
3.3	Occupational choice test	23
3.4	Results of the test	24
3.5	Explanation of test results	24
3.6	Talents and competencies (TaCo's).	25
3.7	Career anchors from Schein	25
3.8	Holland's RIASOC codes	26
Module 4	Social media	32
4.1	Introduction	32
4.2	Objective	32
4.3	LinkedIn	33
4.4	Helpful sample texts LinkedIn	41
4.5	Facebook	43
4.6	Twitter	44
Module 5	Networking	46
5.1	Introduction	46
5.2	Objective	46
5.3	Network(s)	46
5.4	Do and don'ts of networking	48
5.5	Approach	49
5.6	Slurs	50
Module 6.	Searching and finding job vacancies	53
6.1	Introduction	53
6.2	Objective	53
6.3	Where to find job openings?	55
6.4	Looking for work through LinkedIn	56
6.5	Responding to a job posting	56

Module 7 An appropriate resume	59
7.1 Introduction	59
7.2 Objective	59
7.3 Components of a resume	60
7.4 A photo on your resume	62
7.5 Layout and text	63
7.6 Video resume	64
7.7 Focus	64
7.8 Examples resume	65
 Module 8 Motivation Letter	 67
8.1 Introduction	67
8.2 Two species	67
8.3 Sample open application/motivation letter	68
8.4 Sample targeted application/motivation letter	69
8.5 Purpose of a cover letter	69
8.6 Guidelines	70
8.7 The structure of a cover letter	70
8.8 The opening	74
8.9 The core	75
8.10 The closure	75
8.11 AIDA MODEL (attention, interest, desire and action)	76
8.12 An outward looking letter	76
8.13 A rejection...	77
 Module 9 The job interview	 78
9.1 Introduction	78
9.2 Objective	78
9.3 Components of the job interview	78
9.4 Preparation	78
9.5 The conversation	81
9.6 Rounding	82
9.7 Networking and job interview	82
9.8 Open and closed questions	83
9.9 Interaction	84
9.10 After the interview	86
 Follow-up steps	 88