

Table of Contents

Part A Introduction

Introduction	Basic part travel, leisure & hospitality	17
--------------	--	----

Part B Product and industry knowledge of hospitality

Chapter 1 Introduction to the hospitality industry	27
1.1 Introduction	27
1.2 Objectives	28
1.3 Hotels, restaurants and cafes	29
1.4 Sojourn, daytime and water recreation	29
1.5 Tourist information/city hospitality	32
1.6 The travel industry	33
1.7 Service & hospitality at the destination	33
1.8 The aviation industry	34
1.9 Events & festivals	35
1.10 Museums & theaters	36
1.11 Summary	37
1.12 Glossary	38
1.13 Final assignment	39
Chapter 2 Hospitality begins and ends with you: You are Mr/Mrs hospitality	41
2.1 Introduction	41
2.2 Objectives	42
2.3 You never get a second chance for a first impression!	42
2.4 Enthusiasm: the power of the smile	44
2.5 Expertise: pampering guests	46
2.6 Personality: point of contact	47
2.7 Working in hospitality: never a dull moment	48
2.8 Hospitality and sustainability: starting point for your actions	48
2.9 Summary	50
2.10 Glossary	51
2.11 Final assignment	52
Chapter 3 Functions and vacancies in the hospitality industry	53
3.1 Introduction	53
3.2 Objectives	54
3.3 Hospitality functions: front office employee	54
3.4 Hospitality functions: (online) travel agent and tour operator	58
3.5 Hospitality functions: information officer, inspiration officer, island marketer	60
3.6 Hospitality functions: activity organizer and event staff member	62
3.7 Hospitality functions: cabin attendant and passenger ground services agent	66
3.8 Hospitality functions: abroad	68
3.9 Summary	69
3.10 Glossary	70
3.11 Final assignments	71

Chapter 4 The economic importance of the hospitality industry	73
4.1 Introduction	73
4.2 Objectives	73
4.3 The hospitality economy	74
4.4 International travel	75
4.5 Experience economy	77
4.6 Measuring the experience: Return on experience	78
4.7 Future vision hospitality economy	81
4.8 Summary	83
4.9 Glossary	84
4.10 Final assignment	85
 Chapter 5 The hospitality industry: product knowledge, trends and developments	 87
5.1 Introduction	87
5.2 Objectives	87
5.3 The hospitality industry: a brief outline of development so far	88
5.4 Hotels	89
5.5 Holiday parks	92
5.6 Campsites	94
5.7 B&B	96
5.8 Group accommodations	97
5.9 Accommodation types	98
5.10 Care types	103
5.11 Check-in and check-out times	105
5.12 Rates, target groups and conditions	107
5.13 The organizational structure of a hospitality company	111
5.14 Marinas	112
5.15 Amusement parks	113
5.16 Travel companies	115
5.17 Events and festivals	116
5.18 Quality ratings: stars and reviews	119
5.19 Industry associations in hospitality	121
5.20 Trends and developments in the hospitality industry	122
5.21 Summary	125
5.22 Glossary	126
5.23 Final assignments	127
 Chapter 6 Knowledge of customers and guests in the hospitality industry	 131
6.1 Introduction	131
6.2 Objectives	131
6.3 The guest journey	132
6.4 Leisure guests and business guests	135
6.5 From customer wish (in colors) to lifestyle	139
6.6 From lifestyle to persona	140
6.7 Alternative classifications of target groups	148
6.8 International guests	149
6.9 Summary	157
6.10 Glossary	158
6.11 Final assignments	158

Chapter 7 Online marketing in the hospitality industry	161
7.1 Introduction	161
7.2 Objectives	162
7.3 Expertise in online marketing	162
7.4 Sales channels: omni-channeling	164
7.5 E-commerce	165
7.6 Social selling	169
7.7 Reviews	172
7.8 The customer journey, contact moments and deployment of promotional tools	174
7.9 Trends and developments to acquire customers	175
7.10 Summary	180
7.11 Glossary	181
7.12 Final assignments	182

Part C Hospitality, sales and service

B1-K1-W1: Receive the customer/guest
 B1-K1-W2: Informs and advises customer/guest
 B1-K1-W3: Sells and/or rents products and/or services
 B1-K2-W3: Keeps records

Chapter 8 Welcoming Guests	189
8.1 Introduction	189
8.2 Objectives	190
8.3 The reception moment	190
8.4 Representative presentation	193
8.5 Receiving guests by phone	197
8.6 Written receipt	199
8.7 Receive guests via Zoom, Skype and Teams	201
8.8 Welcoming guests through self-service, chatbots and robots	202
8.9 Work attitude	203
8.10 Guest/Customer satisfaction	204
8.11 Summary	207
8.12 Glossary	208
8.13 Final assignments	209

Chapter 9 Taking reservations by phone and guiding them online	211
9.1 Introduction	211
9.2 Objectives	212
9.3 Online reservations with chat function	212
9.4 Taking telephone reservations	215
9.5 Capture sales	220
9.6 Working with a PMS	221
9.7 Working with personal and company data: security and company procedures	222
9.8 Payment procedures	223
9.9 Reservation confirmation	224
9.10 Changes and cancellations	225
9.11 Summary	226
9.12 Glossary	227
9.13 Final assignments	228

Chapter 10 Checking in guests	231
10.1 Introduction	231
10.2 Objectives	231
10.3 Checking the reservation before the arrival of the guest	232
10.4 Receiving guests	234
10.5 Reviewing the reservation with the guest	235
10.6 Up- & cross-selling	235
10.7 Prepare pro forma account and handle payments	238
10.8 Rounding up	241
10.9 Group check-in	241
10.10 VIP check-in	242
10.11 Summary	244
10.12 Glossary	245
10.13 Final assignments	246
 Chapter 11 Informing and advising guests	 249
11.1 Introduction	249
11.2 Objectives	250
11.3 From an information discussion to a consultation	250
11.4 Raising awareness of sustainability	253
11.5 Daytrip parks and events	257
11.6 Summary	259
11.7 Glossary	260
11.8 Final assignments	261

PART D Hospitality, guest care and networking

B1-K1-W4: Identifies and treats complaints

B1-K1-W5: Maintains internal and/or external contacts

B1-K2-W3: Keeps records

Chapter 12 Identifying, addressing and resolving problems and complaints	271
12.1 Introduction	271
12.2 Objectives	272
12.3 A complaint is a challenge	273
12.4 Types of challenges	275
12.5 Aggression levels	277
12.6 Roadmap U.W.S.S. in resolving complaints	278
12.7 Registering complaints	279
12.8 Prevention	281
12.9 Summary	282
12.10 Glossary	283
12.11 Final assignments	283
 Chapter 13 Spider in the web, internal and/or external contacts	 287
13.1 Introduction	287
13.2 Objectives	288
13.3 Communicating internally with colleagues: shift transfer	288
13.4 Communicate internally to other departments: pass on tasks	289
13.5 External communications	290
13.6 Communication in the case of emergencies	291
13.7 Increasing customer/guest satisfaction: act entrepreneurially and commercially	293
13.8 Relationship management: building relationships and networking	294

13.9	Summary	296
13.10	Glossary	297
13.11	Final assignments	298

Part E Hospitality, check-out and payments

B1-K2-W2: Maintains financial records and handles transactions

Chapter 14 Checking out guests	301
14.1 Introduction	301
14.2 Objectives	302
14.3 Sample check-out procedure for individual guests	302
14.4 Check payments	305
14.5 Going over the invoice with the guest	308
14.6 Payment options	310
14.7 Payment security procedures	313
14.8 Actions on discrepancies and irregularities in payments	314
14.9 Summary	315
14.10 Glossary	317
14.11 Final assignments	318

Part F After sales, product development and promotion

B1-K2-W4: Makes proposals for after sales or adjustment of service

B1-K1-W6: Acquires customers/guests and assignments

B1-K2-W1: Compiles information material

Chapter 15 Collect and analyze information to improve services	323
15.1 Introduction	323
15.2 Objectives	323
15.3 What is after sales?	324
15.4 Create plan of action for after sales	326
15.5 Data collection and analysis: night audit reports	326
15.6 Data collection and analysis: industry reports	333
15.7 Data collection and analysis: reviews, surveys, and interviews	335
15.8 Data collection and analysis: trends and developments	338
15.9 Data collection and analysis: conduct a SWOT analysis	339
15.10 Data collection and analysis: formulate objective smartly	341
15.11 Summary	342
15.12 Glossary	343
15.13 Final assignments	344
Chapter 16 Product development: develop a new package	347
16.1 Introduction	347
16.2 Objectives	347
16.3 For which target group are you developing the package	348
16.4 Composing a package	348
16.5 Determining the price of the package	353
16.6 Summary	363
16.7 Glossary	364
16.8 Final assignments	364

Chapter 17 Promotion of the package	367
17.1 Introduction	367
17.2 Objectives	368
17.3 Designing promotional material	368
17.4 What do you want to communicate?	373
17.5 Through what distribution channels will you communicate?	376
17.6 Summary	378
17.7 Glossary	379
17.8 Final Assignments	380

Part G Practical assignments

Practice assignment B1-K1 'Acts as a point of contact'
B1-K2 'Performs administrative and financial processes'	385
Sub-assignment 1 Planning and organization	386
Sub-assignment 2 Aftersales, product development and promotion	387
Sub-assignment 3 Working at the hospitality desk	388